Pastor Temaris

On this Transfiguration Sunday, we gather on the mountaintop with Jesus, wondering what we will encounter.

We come to encounter God's glory revealed.

We witness the revelation of Christ's divinity made plain before us.

We come to witness God's glory revealed.

We remember that God's glory is not about spectacle but truth, not about show but about Love made real among us.

We come to remember God's glory revealed.

We follow Jesus down from the mountaintop into the valleys, as God's glory goes before us and behind us.

We come to be sent out to share God's glory revealed.

Thanks be to God! Amen.

OPENING PRAYER (pray together)

Radiant God, we come to you on the mountaintop to experience your glory. You come to us in the valleys. We meet you in gladness in a place where heaven and earth collide. May our worship of you encourage us on the journey and make us aspire to reflect your kingdom in the world. Transform us and keep us near to you. Amen.

WE OFFER OUR PRAYERS TO GOD

PRAYERS of the PEOPLE (pray responsively) Laura Sourwine

God of our mountaintops, give us gravity.

God of our valleys, give us perspective.

God of our peaks, give us stillness.

God of our depths, give us footsteps forward.

God of the whole creation, give us community.

God of our inmost, quiet souls, give us your voice

God of our bodies, give us your spirit.

God with us in our restlessness and wakefulness, give us your rest.

God in our living, and God in our dying. God in our laughter and God in our weeping.

God in our fear and God in our joy. God in our doubting and God in our praise.

We come today holding much heaviness in our hearts. And we come with full hearts of love. We hold all things to you, confident that you are already present in the darkest corners, and in the brightest light.

As we prepare this week for our Lenten journey, may all that we do speak redemption in the face of despair.

Move your Spirit over us, in thought, word, and deed.

We pray this in your Son's name, Amen.

Adapted from a prayer written by Meredith Holladay, and posted on <http://www.lakeshorewaco.org/>
